The 2009-2010 Waterboro Area Guide will include coupon pages in the back to clip and use throughout the year. These coupons can bring valuable customers to your place of business. In order to purchase a coupon (or page of coupons) you must also purchase a display ad within the guide.

If your coupon includes an expiration date, please keep in mind that the guide is published annually and will be in circulation from June 2009 through May 2010. Coupons will be one-sided with information on the back encouraging users to clip and save to support their community by supporting their local businesses.
